

Fillers-I

Points to Remember:

1. Questions on 'Fillers' are frequently asked in all banking exams. To be able to solve such questions correctly, you must have a very good command over vocabulary.
2. It is very important to read the sentence in a question carefully. In most of the cases, you will find a relevant clue to identify the correct answer. For instance, the grammatical structure of the sentence will determine the grammatical structure of the word/ phrase to be put in the blank. In a vocabulary-based Fillers, the context will facilitate the elimination of the irrelevant options and the selection of the correct one.
3. It is necessary to understand the context of the sentence. While reading the sentence and the options given in the question, you must try to determine the tone of the missing word — whether the required word is positive or negative in the meaning it implies.
4. In double fillers, you should use the method of elimination by simultaneously checking which of the options best satires both the entries.
5. In certain questions, your knowledge and understanding of Common idioms and phrases in the English Language may be tested. Hence, be sure to have a good skill set of such phrases.
